

NOTIFICATION OF PROGRAMMING

The first author and the sponsor will be notified via email on approximately February 16th of:

- Title, date, and time of session in which abstract has been programmed
- Format of presentation (oral, poster or both)
- Program number
- Presentation time

This information will not be available before this date! Co-authors will not receive notification.

If you have followed the guidelines in submitting your abstract, it will be programmed, so register today at www.experimentalbiology.org
